

Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality

Edited by Sean Wales C.Ss.R. and Dennis Billy C.Ss.R.

Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality

Edited by Sean Wales C. Ss. R. & Dennis Billy C. Ss. R.

Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality

Edited by Sean Wales C.Ss.R. & Dennis Billy C.Ss.R.

Redemptorists have a common language. There are words, however, that make us sometimes ask: 'I wonder how that is understood in our history and tradition?' This lexicon aims to answer these questions.

The Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality focuses on key words and concepts in a popular, meditative style against the background of Redemptorist history, tradition and spirituality. The lexicon is based on sound scholarly research, yet is easily accessible to all belonging to the larger Redemptorist family.

The Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality is not meant to be just an academic addition on the bookshelf. 'Reflection Questions' at the end of each entry are designed to stimulate internal contemplation and external discussion.

The Lexicon of Redemptorist Spirituality will be an invaluable resource for all Redemptorists in their ongoing process of formation.

COVER: THE RESURRECTION by Dina Cormack, a South African sculptress, in the chapel of Sizanani Village, Bronkhorstspuit. Photo courtesy of Else Strivens of Trefoil magazine (a South African Catholic quarterly: elsemari@mweb.co.za).

ISBN 1-874967-26-1

General Secretariat for Redemptorist Spirituality